Introduction

Having some data about attendance of museums and galleries collected, I would like to write a brief report about it.

Main Features

There are few main features that have to be mentioned. Firstly, there is a tendency, that can be easily spotted: amount of people who attend these places seems to grow with a ^{noticeable} ~~constant~~ rate. Secondly, it is obvious that museums which imposed admission charges have suffered a substantial decrease in their attendance.

Significant comparisons

It seems that amount of people who visited museums has grown more in the period between 2013 and 2015 than in 2015-2017. Other thing that appeals to me is that museums which have not introduced them are more popular now than the ones which have.

Recommendations

There are some recommendations that I think ^{they will increase attendance, that is why} are ought to be given. The main one is to not introduce any charges: it discourages people from visiting that particular museum, makes them think of it less respectively and therefore they are more likely to go to another place where they do not have to pay. Also I should recommend you to make your museum or gallery more interesting for tourists, it is widely known that they are the biggest part of museum attendants.

Conclusion

To conclude, I would like to say that if you use the information I draw on here and follow my recommendations you will succeed.
