Subject: Attendance of museums and galleries

Museums and galleries are great places to spend a free time. Moreover, visiting them is an opportunity to find out new information.

According to our research the ^{rate} ~~amount~~ of people attending British Museum, National Gallery and Tate Gallery has risen since 2013. As ~~we~~ we can judge, there was a huge increase in popularity of British Museum in 2015 in comparasence to 2013. On the other hand, by 2017, Natural History Museum and Science Museum ^{do not appear to the visitors anymore} ~~have become not so much attractive~~. However, they have introduced admission charges in 2014, which helped to improve the situation with the amount of visitors. It was done to stop a dramatic decrease in the attendance of Natural History museum, which is clearly seen between 2013 and 2015.

To my mind, it is a good idea for science museums to show different experiments in order to draw on attention. Moreover, they can make an advertisement in the Internet. It is more likely that teenagers will find the information there and decide to go to the gallery. What is more, ⁱⁿ ~~programs~~ and events ~~are a~~ can also be very helpful.

All in all, it is impossible to deny ^{that} Art and History are respectively important for British people. But unfortunately, ^{Natural History and Science} ~~are~~ are not so popular among visitors.
